

Business Transfer Agency Franchise Opportunity For Sale

Various Locations throughout the UK, United Kingdom

£25,000

The Business Partnership provides a national service as one of the UK's leading business transfer agents, successfully brokering deals between sellers and buyers throughout the UK.

Our success is due to the quality and business experience of our franchisees, together with our attention to detail and a fundamental understanding of the needs of our clients.

The Business Partnership offers the total solution for vendors and buyers, and adds value to all of the transactions in which it is involved. The Franchise Opportunity:

Established for many years The Business Partnership is one of the UK's leading Business Transfer Agents with 26 branches across England, Scotland & Wales.

New opportunities exist for commercially astute and professionally minded individuals who would like to operate as a Business Broker.

Either home or office based; each franchise has a substantial exclusive territory, which is capable of realising a six-figure income in the third year of operation.

As a franchisee you will be assisting your clients in the sale of their business interest, achieving the best possible price.

You are assured of a very interesting, satisfying and enjoyable business opportunity, which will with hard work and commitment, realise a very rewarding and profitable way of life.

We are looking to appoint suitably qualified franchisees with well-rounded commercial skills for the FEW REMAINING locations throughout the UK. The franchise package includes:

Full training,

Initial leads,

Stationary,

Web sites

Unparalleled field support

YOUR NEXT STEP.....

To start the process and receive more information on this franchise opportunity, use the contact seller button below.

We must stress that this process is one of discovery by both sides and throughout there will be many points to be considered.

Therefore throughout the selection process there is no obligation at any stage.

Our record speaks for itself and we do not need to hard sell or exercise pressure, therefore if someone does not want to proceed at any point, we will respect their decision and continue discussions with other interested parties.

To help us both find out whether you have what it takes to become a successful Business Partnership franchisee we will offer as much information as possible - however you need to take the first step and contact us.

THE SELECTION PROCESS.....

We receive hundreds of enquiries every year from people wishing to join The Business Partnership and share in our success. Each year perhaps five or six are successful.

On receipt of your initial enquiry we will send you an introduction pack, which briefly outlines the opportunity available.

The introduction letter will suggest you ring for an informal discussion to learn more from one of our existing franchisees.
This initial discussion will explain the structure of the group and answer many of your early queries.
If we feel you make a suitable candidate and you wish to learn more you will be invited to a meeting to discuss the business in more detail, the working day, income streams and the financial aspects.
The next stage is that suitable candidates are invited to contact two or three of the existing franchisees with the aim of finding out more and meeting them if required.
If both parties wish to continue then a final meeting is arranged to formalise the process, discuss timescales, funding, training etc.
