

Air systems Conditioning and Ventilation For Sale

United Kingdom

< £200k

The business partnership has recently been instructed to support the directors of a profit and well respected business that provides air management systems to a wide variety of clients throughout the UK. They expertise embraces, design, supply, installation and service of air conditioning, ventilation and ducting equipment. They also have the ability to provide consultancy services on air quality.

LOCATION

can be home based as all engineers are home based.

EXPANSION POTENTIAL

The business is equipped to provide air quality audits in the workplace public sector buildings..hospitals and schools. Whilst these audits are not mandatory; it is likely that the legislation in mainland Europe and the US will arrive on the UK statute book in the short/medium term. This will provide significant growth in the business.
