

Domestic & Contract Cleaning Business For Sale

London, London, United Kingdom

£99,000

The Business Partnership is pleased to offer this domestic cleaning company trading since August 2006. They have a database of nearly 400 private residential customers (with over 100 as regular customers) as well as ongoing contracts with 4-5 local letting/estate agents. This thriving business is reluctantly being sold as one of the directors is relocating. The company has shown considerable growth in 2007 due to its strong branding and robust operating procedures. Income is now averaging £16,000 per month and net profit for this year are on target of £50k The marketing strategy to date has leaned predominately towards the private residential area but the presence in the commercial cleaning of residential properties has been growing steadily.
