

Retail Stickers Business Used By Children Teachers Hobbyists For Sale

United Kingdom

£22,000

The Business Partnership is pleased to offer this Franchise opportunity to supply much sought after selection of Stickers to an extensive range of retail outlets throughout the UK.

These stickers are purchased and used by Children (because they love them), by Teachers (because they use them as rewards - like the old gold stars) and hobbyists (because there is an increasing demand for home made cards etc.

This brand of stickers has been around for 10 years, but is now being offered as a franchise in various areas throughout the UK.

The price includes a large quantity of stock and display units.

This is an opportunity to earn good money from a low initial investment (2 options available), which is too good to miss.....

What the Franchisor says about the offer.....

What is the product? .....

A high quality collection of generic stickers, which are bought in huge numbers by teachers, children and card hobbyists and retailing at a very affordable 99p. To complement the range we also offer albums, keyboard & A5 stickers. The range and new products are changing constantly so there's never a chance of the product going stale at the point of purchase.....

How does it work? .....

You are offered an exclusive territory in which to distribute your stickers on a consignment basis. Once you've established your customer base it's just repeat business every month.....

How many outlets do I need to have?.....

We will find you your first 50 outlets then it's up to you. We have a variety of merchandising solutions, catering for every type of retailer. Some of the suggested outlets are: Post Offices, convenience stores, garden centres, stationers, newsagents, toy shops, newsagents.....

How do you know the product will sell?.....

This product has a proven track record and has taken Europe by storm. We have also been trialling it in the UK for over a year through our franchise network with great success.....

How many days/hours per week will I need to work?.....

It's up to you, this opportunity is totally flexible. Many of our customers are open early in the morning to late in the evening so you can pick the hours to suit you. You can comfortably merchandise 10/12 customers per day.....

How do I get paid?.....

As the product is supplied on consignment retailers only pay for what they sell, after they've sold it. Nevertheless, you'll find 90% of your customers will pay either cash from the till or write a cheque on the day.....

How much can I earn?.....

It depends on how many customers you have. We would hope that you would aim for 200 quality customers. Then based on our average sales details you would earn between £20,000 - £40,000 p. a.....

How much does it cost?.....

The investment ranges from £5,000 to £22,000 including stationery & training fee, stock and display stands. ....
