

Busy Well Established Franchise Sandwich Bar

Hawick, Scottish Borders, United Kingdom

£70,000

The Business Partnership Scotland is delighted to offer for sale the following business....

The franchise was set up 9 years ago and has been run by the present owner for the last year. The present owner has been offered a very lucrative new position and now wishes to sell on the franchise. Baguette Express is one of the most well known sandwich franchises in the country and is currently expanding its shops and locations at a very high rate. They offer assistance and guidance to all franchise holders with constant help and advice.

The franchise name and quality of food offered gives the business an edge over its competitors. The business offers a wide and varied fresh menu with its meal deals being particularly popular on a daily basis.

LOCATION

The business is located on Sandbed in the centre of the Scottish borders town of Hawick. Sandbed leads onto Commercial Road, Buccleuch Road and the High Street. The town centre is a very busy area with shoppers, workers and tourists.
